From the Deacons: We have received two letters from the Reformed Free Publishing Association thanking the congregation for gifts received for the publishing of The Standard Bearer, and for book publishing. Continue to remember the RFPA in your prayers and financial support.

OUR CHURCH FAMILY

We would like to thank our wonderful church family once again for all that you did after Chris' hip surgery. The help we received with chores, the meals that were brought over and the cards that were sent, we appreciated each and every act of kindness. A special thanks to Pastor Griess for bringing the word of God and words of comfort before the surgery. We are so blessed to be part of Calvary! Throughout the last year, your brotherly love has been a witness to us and to others. The Lord has blessed us through you! Thank you again!
