DENOMINATIONAL NEWS

Rev. C. Haak declined the call extended to him by our Faith PRC.

Rev. R. VanOverloop is considering the call he received from Doon PRC.

From the Philippines: “The combined consistories of the Berean Protestant Reformed Church and the First Reformed Church report that the desired name for our new denomination has been approved by the SEC (gov't) after our second attempt at registration with the SEC. “Federation of Protestant Reformed Churches in the Philippines, Inc.” is the name that has been approved by the SEC. As a result, the final step of the registration process with the SEC can be completed by the end of January. We give thanks to our heavenly Father for this good news, and seek His continued blessing upon our preparations for the organizational meeting on Wednesday, April 9, 2014, according to His will.”

The Reformed Witness Hour reports that in a month's time, their sermons have been downloaded over 50,000 times from all over the world. They also report that for the first time they will begin broadcasting in New York City. Continue to pray for the spread of the gospel through this important means.

Junior seminary student Ryan Barnhill has just learned from the faculty that he will be taking his internship the second half of this year (July 1- December 31, 2014) in Edgerton (MN) PRC under her pastor, Rev. Douglas Kuiper. Edgerton's Council has approved this proposal and over the next few months will be making preparations with her pastor for the coming of Ryan, his wife Miranda, and daughter Mya. Besides involvement in all the aspects of the life of the Edgerton congregation, the internship will afford Ryan the opportunity to be a part of the work of the Foreign Mission Committee and the Reformed Witness Committee. Ryan and Miranda are excited about the opportunity to spend the six-month internship in one of the congregations of Classis West.
