DENOMINATIONAL NEWS

Seminarian Ryan Barnhill has moved to Edgerton and has begun his internship there. The internship goes through the end of December. We look forward to getting to know seminarian Barnhill and his wife Miranda and their daughter Mya as they are close by and will be in Calvary a few times undoubtedly. May God use this internship for seminarian Barnhill's growth and the good of the churches.

Rev. James Slopsema preached his farewell sermon in First PRC (Grand Rapids, MI) on Sunday evening, June 29 after which he begins his emeritation (retirement), effective July 1. Pastor Slopsema has served the PRC for nearly forty years in various congregations since 1974. We express our thanks to Rev. Slopsema for the years of his faithful ministry and service, and we give thanks to God for continuing to give us such men of integrity and spiritual convictions. May the Slopsemas know the Lord's rich blessings in the years ahead

Candidate Josh Engelsma is allowed to receive calls from the churches today. He is currently on three trios all of which call today.
