FROM THE COUNCIL

The Foreign Mission Committee meets Tuesday at 7pm at Hull PRC.

With gratitude to our Heavenly Father, the Consistory joyfully received the confessions of faith of Courtney Dolieslager, Jordan Kooima, and Lanae Hoekstra at our last meeting. Barring any objection, their public confessions of faith will take place on September 27 in the morning service.

The Council has been informed by Bonnie Van Engen that she wishes to lay down the work of bulletin clerk. We express our sincere thanks to Bonnie for her years of service to Calvary as our bulletin clerk. Anyone who is interested in filling this position here at Calvary is asked to contact Mike Van Bommel.

The membership papers of Brett and Emily Vander Veen and their children have been sent to their home at their request.

The Council has decided to open our new parsonage for the church members to walk through after the morning service on September 20, 2015. Let's all be mindful of our children's behavior as we walk through our new parsonage.

Young Peoples' Society will begin this morning after the service. Please meet in the classroom.
