OUR CHURCH FAMILY

Jane Hoksbergen had an emergency appendectomy Thursday in Tennessee. Henry and Jane were on vacation when Jane's appendix flared up. They did the surgery laparoscopically and all went well. Jane is doing fine now and they plan to continue their vacation abiding by the restrictions the doctors set for Jane. We give thanks for God's providential care.

Margaret Driesen came Monday evening from the hospital. She is not completely recovered, but is doing much better. We give thanks to God for healing mercies. Psalm 107:29 "He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still."
