From the Deacons - As we were reminded last Sunday morning, we are called to support the preaching in obedience to the 4th commandment, whether that be through general fund giving or other opportunities the Lord gives us. As the host church of seminarian Holstege we have the opportunity to support our intern and his family, and thereby the preaching. The deacons have scheduled an offering for this evening's service to help meet the needs of this family while they are with us. Please continue to remember the family in prayer as they transition to their work at Calvary.
