Courtney Dolieslager returned home safely from her trip to India, instructing the children of the orphanage as part of the mission work sponsored by Georgetown PRC.

Alvin and Brenda Bylsma will be moving this week to Michigan where they will be living near the children/grandchildren. We pray God's richest blessing on them in their new home and church home. We will miss this Brother and Sister in Christ, and express our thanks to them for their many labors for our Church and local schools.

We express our Christian sympathy to Ron Kruger in the passing away of his father John this past Friday morning. May his comfort be in knowing that he was not his own, but belonged in body and soul, in life and death to his faithful Savior, Jesus Christ.
