OUR CHURCH FAMILY

The membership of Jenna (Van Ravensway) Potjer was transferred to Hope PRC, Redlands, CA at her request. We pray God's blessings on Brad and Jenna in their marriage and in her new church home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Brummel were blessed with a daughter, Everleigh Lynn, last Sunday morning. Ashley and Everleigh came home from the hospital on Wednesday and are doing well for which we are grateful to God.

Mr. Ron Kruger submitted to the final treatment of his first round of chemotherapy this week. He will be starting his next round of chemotherapy next week after more testing. We continue to remember the brother in our prayers.

We thank Pastor Brummel and Elder John Keizer for your visits brining scripture, prayer and encouragement. Thank you to the congregation for your prayers and concerns the many months. I lived in pain, and since surgery. Thanks for the visits, cards, gifts, and food. We are humbled by your love and blessed through your giving. I have had setbacks, I had pneumonia, and now have a compressed fracture in my upper back. I am in the process of getting an upper back brace and we go from there. We thank our heavenly Father for his care and faithfulness to us each day. Mary & Art Bleyenbergh “But it is good for me to draw near to God; I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may declare all your works” Psalm 73:28
