QUOTES FOR CONTEMPLATION

And now we are informed of what God requires of His people in His covenant. In the covenant there are two parts: there is God's part and there is our part. Only when both God and His people are faithful to their respective parts of the covenant can the covenant of grace continue. The same is true, for example, in the covenant of marriage, which God ordained as an earthly picture of His covenant with His church. There is the man's part and the woman's part. For the covenant of marriage to work, both must do their part. So is it in the covenant of grace that God has with us. But in God's covenant we cannot keep our part of the covenant on our own. We can do our part only after God has done His part. And God's part in the covenant is to save us in Jesus Christ, deliver us from the bondage of sin, renew us by the Spirit, make us new creatures. Only when God has done His part can we do our part. Our part is the fruit of God's part.

And what is our part in the covenant? Do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with your God.

-Rev. J. Slopsema ("What the Lord Requires of Us" The Standard Bearer Issue 10, 2/15/2001)
