FROM THE COUNCIL

Pastor Brummel officiated a funeral service in Illinois on Friday evening, so the consistory arranged a pulpit switch with Doon PRC for this evening. We welcome Rev. Engelsma to our pulpit and pray God's blessings on the word proclaimed.

The sacrament of baptism will be administered to José Roberto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Ortiz, and to Kedon Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Van Maanen, next Sunday morning, February 16, Lord willing.

The consistory announces that Emily Westra has expressed an agreement with the doctrines of the Protestant Reformed Churches and that she has a desire to have her church membership here in Calvary with her husband Kyle. Emily is currently a member of the First CRC of Rock Valley. The consistory rejoices with Kyle and Emily, and barring any valid objection brought to the consistory by the congregation, welcomes Emily to full membership in Calvary.

The consistory plans to begin family visitation this week under the theme “The Unity of the Body” based on I Corinthians 12:12-31. The full schedule can be found in your mailboxes.

QUOTES FOR CONTEMPLATION

If our homes by the Spirit and grace of God are going to be His instruments to call our young men to the gospel ministry, they must be God-centered, seeking God's glory above all. There must be a great love for the truth in our homes and a seriousness about maintaining sound doctrine. Our homes must be characterized by a love for the true church, shown by active, zealous involvement in her life and ministry. It is not God's will that the gospel be preached by some great human organization independent from the oversight of any church. The gospel must be preached by the faithful church supported by faithful and zealous members and ruled by properly called and ordained godly elders who, as a very important part of the exercise of their office, rule over the ministry and the men called to the ministry.
