FROM THE COUNCIL

Due to the current restrictions on gathering for worship, the consistory authorized the livestreaming of messages at our regular church times on our Calvary PRC YouTube channel. The service will include a message, prayer, and the singing of Psalter numbers. Look for an email with instructions regarding the livestream. If you have any difficulty or questions, feel free to contact Mr. Nathan Schiermeyer. We pray that God's name be glorified in this way and that His saints are nourished spiritually.

The deacons encourage the congregation to continue to remember the causes of the Kingdom in your giving. Your offerings can be dropped off with a deacon or with Pastor at church or be mailed to the church mailbox: PO Box 343, Hull, IA 51239

CHURCH CALENDAR

All church activities including family visitation and catechism remain on hold.

OUR CHURCH FAMILY

“We would like to thank the congregation of Calvary for the many thoughtful cards, visits, gestures, and prayers offered on behalf of our family in the recent passing of our son and brother, Jordan. We truly felt the communion of the saints and are thankful for the place God has given us as members of Christ's Church.” - “For we know that if our earthly house of the tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, and house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.” II Corinthians 5:1

QUOTES FOR CONTEMPLATION

Jesus is risen from the dead as the Living One. This is what the angels asserted in their question, “Why seek ye the living (one) among the dead?”

That Jesus is the Living One means, first, that He is alive. Jesus was delivered by sinful hands to the death of the cross on Friday. On Sunday He arose again. He is no longer dead but living. As proof of this the angels pointed to the fact that Jesus was not there any longer.

That Jesus is the Living One means, secondly, that Jesus is forever beyond the reach of death. This was not true of all those who were raised before Jesus. They were still subject to death. They were raised from death and then died again. But Jesus is the Living One. He has been raised to an eternal life, beyond the reach of death. This is true because He was raised on the basis of His suffering and death, which paid the price of sin and released Him from the penalty of sin.

But that Jesus is the Living One means, finally, that through His resurrection He has become the Source and Giver of life to His people. As the Son of man, He graciously transforms by a spiritual rebirth all those whom the Father has given Him. He raises them from death unto life, a life of obedience to Him and fellowship with the Father. He recreates them, so that that as new creatures they are equipped to do the good work God has for them in His kingdom, a work that has been eternally foreordained for them. What a blessed gospel! The Son of man is risen from the dead to become the Living One! He has been given power and dominion to establish the everlasting kingdom of God! He has raised us from death unto life to become citizens in His kingdom that we may serve the living God and enjoy Him forever!
