FROM THE COUNCIL

Due to the continued restrictions on gathering for worship, the consistory authorized the livestreaming of messages at our regular church times on our Calvary PRC YouTube channel. The service will include a message, prayer, and the singing of Psalter numbers. Go to the YouTube channel and pursue the link that states that it is live. We pray that God's name be glorified in this way and that His saints are nourished spiritually.

The deacons encourage the congregation to continue to remember the causes of the Kingdom in your giving. Your offerings can be dropped off with a deacon or with Pastor at church or be mailed to the church mailbox: PO Box 343, Hull, IA 51239

The Foreign Mission Committee will meet this week Tuesday.

QUOTES FOR CONTEMPLATION

It is not just "coronavirus," it is coronavirus and the King. And if it feels even more out of control next week than it did this week, take the perspective you gained from the control tower into what feels like the chaos of your world. And remember, even if you cannot see from down here in the midst of it all, it is all ordered for the good of His church and the glory of His name.

You and I must go through a time of coronavirus antithetical to the way the world does. With caution, yes. With care, to be sure. That is our calling. But not with dread terror, as though the Lion/Lamb did not take the book and is not opening the seals thereof. Instead, with a certain calm in the face of chaos, knowing coronavirus has a King.

Furthermore, we ought to go through this time with worship in our hearts and on our lips. "And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb.... And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy..." (vv. 8-9). Coronavirus has been made to serve us.

One day, when it and all other pains and sorrows are not needed as servants anymore, it will be taken away like so much scaffolding from the building. And with a freedom and fullness unknown to us even now, all creation, angels, and just men made perfect, will join with one voice crying, "Worthy is the Lamb, our King!"
